MEMORANDUM FOR: Director of Personnel

THROUGH: Deputy Director for Administration

FROM: [REDACTED]
Acting Director of Communications

SUBJECT: Premium Pay [REDACTED]
[REDACTED]

1. Requirements levied on Foreign Networks Division Special Applications Unit dictate that several of their personnel travel extensively on official temporary duty, where they must work administratively uncontrolled overtime to accomplish their assigned tasks. Two individuals currently fall into this category; however, others may qualify in the future. (C)

2. [REDACTED] a GS-11 Telecomm Specialist, has been assigned to Special Applications Unit approximately eight months, and in mid-May began his third 90-day TDY in Central America.

[REDACTED] a GS-12 Telecomm Specialist, has been TDY in Central America approximately six of the last twelve months, and is scheduled to begin another lengthy TDY in June. These individuals are both working with [REDACTED]

[REDACTED] In this capacity, they are often required to brief and train [REDACTED] which must be done without regard to normal work schedules and within timing dictated by operational requirements. As a result, [REDACTED] and [REDACTED] usually work a six or seven day week with about 20-25 hours of overtime per week. It is expected that this requirement will continue for, minimally, one year. [REDACTED] has not claimed any overtime and [REDACTED] only claimed 92 hours in 1982 and 12 hours thus far in 1983. A more equitable arrangement is needed in fairness to the employees. (C)

3. Given the aforementioned, we request that premium pay be authorized for [REDACTED] while on TDY, effective at the earliest possible date. Additional requests will be submitted as appropriate. (C)

I recommend your approval for two individuals in the Office of Communications, Foreign Networks Division, Special Applications Unit to receive annual premium pay for administratively uncontrollable overtime. Both often work TDY in Central America where they are required to perform without regard to normal work schedules and within timing dictated by covert action operational requirements. Both usually work a six or seven day week with about 20-25 hours of overtime a week. This rate qualifies for 25% premium pay under guidelines in FPM Supplement 990-2, Book 550, SI-7 which is the basis for

The uncontrollable TDY requirements are expected to continue for at least one year and will be subject to review at the end of this period. Additional requests will be submitted as appropriate. (U)
